

Are you eligible to vote for NAPE's President and Secretary-Treasurer?

If you are a NAPE member in good standing you should have already received a ballot to vote for NAPE's President and Secretary-Treasurer. The information set out below does not apply to you and can be disregarded.

Any NAPE member in good standing who hasn't received a call for nomination should contact NAPE's Elections Committee at (709) 754-0700 or 1-800-563-4442 before February 9, 2018, to ensure NAPE has your current mailing address.

Inactive members who are not paying dues but who have the right to vote include but are not limited to those who are:

- on education leave
- on maternity/parental leave
- on unpaid sick leave
- awaiting the outcome of an arbitration case
- suffering from a workplace injury
- seasonal employees
- temporarily assigned to management position and still in the bargaining unit
- on unpaid leave covered by Collective Agreement
- members with recall rights to their Collective Agreement

NAPE retirees are NOT eligible to vote.

If you are unsure whether or not you are eligible to vote, please contact NAPE's Elections Committee at (709) 754-0700 or 1-800-563-4442 before February 9, 2018.

A message from:

The NAPE Elections Committee
Reg Anstey, Chief Returning Officer