1. DRAFTING OF RULES AND PROCEDURES

The rules and procedures for the upcoming election shall be presented to the Board of Directors for approval.

2. ELECTION OFFICE

The Election Office shall be in-house with special lock on office door.

3. ELECTION PROCESS

The elections of President and Secretary/Treasurer of NAPE shall be conducted by an electronic/phone voting process of the full membership.

4. WINNING CANDIDATE CRITERIA

Simple Majority Vote

For the election of President and Secretary/Treasurer of NAPE, the candidate who receives a simple majority shall be the candidate deemed elected.

5. ELECTION CALL

Union members shall be notified of the Election in accordance with NAPE Constitution (Article VI. A. 2 (b)). Notification shall contain:

- time frame of the election for the positions of President and Secretary/Treasurer; and
- formal notification of the last day for nominations and the final date the member could receive a Personal Identification Number.

The Union shall also note in its Election notification, the last fixed date at which a member can confirm whether they are correctly identified (name, address and Local number) on the Union's membership list.

6. NOMINATION PROCESS

Nomination Criteria

Candidates running for the positions of President and Secretary/Treasurer elected office must meet the following minimal nomination criteria:

- (a) Be a member of NAPE in good standing (must have a registration card on file at NAPE Office) and one who is eligible to run for the position under NAPE's Constitution).

- (b) Not accept a nomination for any other position being contested under a full membership vote process.
- (c) Have a total of no less than fifty (50) NAPE members in good standing (must have a registration card on file at NAPE Office) sign an official nomination form (Appendix "C"). Local numbers must be included for each member
- (d) Pay a refundable nomination fee of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) prior to close of nomination. Cheques will be cashed.

Nominations

- (a) Candidates are responsible to ensure that their nominators are members in good standing (must have a registration card on file at NAPE Office) as per the Rules and Procedures and NAPE's Constitution.
- (b) Nominations must be received at NAPE's Head Office no later than 4:30 p.m. on the day fixed for the close of nominations for review by the Election Committee. Nominations will be accepted via email, fax, mail or in person.
- (c) The Election Committee will only confirm the nominations after close of nominations as outlined in the Time Frames. (Appendix "A")

Acclamation

If not more than one nomination is received for the position, then the Chief Returning Officer shall, at the close of nominations, declare the person duly elected by acclamation.

Insufficient Nominations

The Board of Directors shall fill the position for which nominations are not received at its first meeting after the Biennial Convention.

7. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF CANDIDATES

Election Conduct

Candidates and their supporters will be expected to observe accepted standards of conduct in accordance with the Union's overall Objectives as outlined in Article II of NAPE's Constitution. No candidate or supporter shall publish or circulate, either verbally or otherwise, information on another candidate that is false or defames that person's character and/or integrity.

Social Media

Information and updates regarding the election or candidates may be posted on any official NAPE social media or online platforms upon request/direction by the Chief Returning Officer.

Requests, correspondence, inquiries, and/or complaints regarding social media or official NAPE social media or online platforms must be directed to the Chief Returning Officer/Election Committee and not to NAPE Staff or Board Members.

No candidate or official representative can force, coerce, or otherwise make any individual, Local or group post information about their campaign. It is the individual/local/group's decision whether or not they post information regarding the election, campaign materials or any candidate(s).

Campaign Expenditures

In any NAPE election campaign there shall be a limitation of financial expenditures by any one candidate of six thousand dollars ($6,000). Candidates shall not accept campaign donations from an Employer, an agent of an employer or an organization competing with NAPE in a matter that is detrimental to NAPE.

(Campaign expenditure not to include nomination fee.)

Disclosure

Each candidate must disclose sources and amounts of all financial contributions and expenditures within two (2) weeks of the completion of the election. The Elections Committee shall provide to the Union, who shall provide such information to the membership.

Volunteer work done on behalf of the candidate is not considered a campaign expenditure. A reasonable wage cost shall be calculated for full time workers a candidate may use in their campaign and this shall be reported as a campaign expenditure. Any reasonable cost shall be reported for any donated production work done on behalf of a candidate and this shall be reported as a campaign expenditure.

Failure to Disclose

The position of a successful candidate who fails to comply with the foregoing shall be declared vacant. A candidate so failing to comply shall be barred from running in any election for Officers and Directors of the Union held during the next three (3) years.

NAPE Sponsored Campaign Material

At the request of each and any candidate, NAPE shall provide to IntelliVote a two-page electronic pamphlet to be circulated to the members when their Personal Identification Number is provided. The pamphlet may contain a picture of the candidate and shall contain a biographical sketch of the candidate along with the candidate's reasons for running for office. Candidates are responsible to ensure that the information contained in their pamphlet is accurate and complete.

Electronic copy (print ready in PDF format) of the pamphlet must be submitted to the Elections Committee for approval by Monday, March 8, 2021 - 4:30 p.m.

NAPE Facilities

Neither candidate for the offices of President and Secretary/Treasurer, nor their supporters, may use the Union's facilities and resources (except where otherwise noted) on behalf of the candidates, or in any way suggest the preference or support of NAPE and/or its employees for any candidate.

Communication from Head Office

Except as otherwise provided for in the Rules and Procedures governing the election of President and Secretary/Treasurer, the Union (NAPE) will not circulate or print any material directly relating to any candidate, except in exceptional circumstances such as the death or withdrawal of a candidate or other exceptional circumstances decided by the Elections Committee.

8. VOTERS' LIST AND ISSUING OF PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS (PINs)

Voters' List

After the last day to finalize the voters' list and prior to the distribution of the Personal Identification Numbers, the Union shall provide the Elections Committee with the most current membership mailing list containing all revisions.

This membership mailing list shall be the voters' list and shall be compiled as of Friday, March 5, 2021 - 4:30 p.m.

The voters' list shall be:

- the active membership list
- the inactive membership list

Each candidate will receive a voters' list which will include the member's name and home and/or cell number in electronic or hard copy form, at their request.

Re-issue of a PIN to a Member

A member who informs the Elections Committee that they have either lost or did not receive a PIN for which the Elections Committee has a record of being sent out by InteliVote, shall be issued another PIN only by InteliVote upon authorization of the Elections Committee.

9. TIME FRAMES

Distribution of Personal Identification Numbers (PINs)

InteliVote will distribute PINs under the direction of the Audit Firm and with consultation with the Chief Returning Officer. PINs will be sent via email to members who have provided email addresses to NAPE. For those members for which an email has not been provided, the PIN will be sent using Canada Post. No PIN will be reissued unless done at the direction of the Election Committee.

Last Date to Vote

The time and day fixed for the last day to vote shall be March 31, 2021 - 4:30 p.m.

Tabulation of Votes

Tabulation of the votes shall be conducted by InteliVote in consultation with the Chief Returning Officer and will be concluded at close of vote on March 31, 2021 - 4:30 p.m.

Undelivered PINs

Any PINs sent by regular mail (Canada Post) and returned shall be secured by InteliVote and provided to the Audit Firm.

Results

Candidates will be advised by the Chief Returning Officer immediately of the results of the election on completion of voting once the results have been affirmed by the Audit Firm. The results of the election shall then be reported to the membership through an official Union news/media release. The results shall also be reported on the Union's website.

10. CHIEF RETURNING OFFICER

Appointment of a Chief Returning Officer

The Board of Directors shall appoint a Chief Returning Officer.

The Chief Returning Officer shall chair the Elections Committee.

Electronic Voting Process

There shall be clear direction provided as to how to cast a vote.

The Chief Returning Officer/Elections Committee shall, in consultation with the electronic vote facilitator, ensure members are provided PINs for the purpose of voting prior to the fixed date at which PINs are sent out to the membership.

Secure Confidential Voting

The Chief Returning Officer shall, at all times, conduct the elections in such a manner that ensures the confidentiality of the voters.

Protection Against Voting Fraud

InteliVote shall ensure the integrity and security of the entire voting process utilizing appropriate protocol and procedures. The Chief Returning Officer shall be advised of all policies and procedures.

Neutrality of the Chief Returning Officer

The Chief Returning Officer shall not attend any NAPE candidates' meeting from the time of their appointment as Chief Returning Officer until their official duties have ceased, unless so directed by the Board of Directors and the Elections Committee.

Expenses of the Chief Returning Officer

The Chief Returning Officer shall be reimbursed for all of their expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

Disruption of Mail Service

In the event of a mail disruption at the time of an election, the Chief Returning Officer in consultation with the Elections Committee shall have the right to make decisions regarding time frames.

11. ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

Elections Committee

There shall be an Elections Committee consisting of a Chief Returning Officer and three (3) members of NAPE to oversee the election of the President and Secretary/Treasurer of the Union.

With the exception of the Chief Returning Officer, members of the Elections Committee and a minimum of three (3) alternates shall be elected at the Biennial Convention to oversee the election for President and Secretary/Treasurer that takes place prior to the next Biennial Convention.

Quorum for Elections Committee meetings is to be the Chief Returning Officer and one (1) other.

Neutrality of the Elections Committee

Members of the Elections Committee shall not actively work on behalf of a candidate or publicly express support for, or opposition to, nor attend meetings of a candidate.

Receipt of Nominations

The Elections Committee shall ensure that all nominees are members in good standing (must have a registration card on file at NAPE Office) and meet the nomination criteria.

Conduction of Elections

The Elections Committee shall be responsible for the conduct of NAPE election for the Offices of President and Secretary/Treasurer of the Union. The Elections Committee shall also:

- scrutinize the print ready pamphlet each candidate provides the Union for accuracy insofar as is practical; and
- rule on the propriety of any election activity undertaken by a candidate or those acting on behalf of the candidate. Upon finding such activity to be improper or inappropriate, the Committee may declare the election, or any candidacy in such election, to be null and void.

12. ALLEGED VIOLATION OF RULES AND PROCEDURES

Alleged Violations

All alleged violations to the election rules and procedures must be reported to the Elections Committee within two weeks of the announcement of the results of the election. The Elections Committee shall advise affected candidates of any such action.

The Elections Committee is charged with the responsibility of fully investigating such allegations and reporting the results of its investigation to the complainant within two weeks. If the Elections Committee identifies a violation, it shall take such corrective action as it deems necessary.

Appeal Procedures

Within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of any such decision of the Elections Committee, any candidate may appeal to the Board of Directors to determine whether the Elections Committee has acted within its mandate in rendering such a decision.

The Board of Directors shall meet within seventy-two (72) hours of receipt of the appeal. A quorum of the Board of Directors must be present. Any member of the Board who was a candidate for the position in question or who has declared them to be in a conflict of interest, shall not participate in the deliberation of the matter before the Board.

The Board of Directors shall conduct the necessary investigation and render its decision within seven (7) days of receipt of the appeal. The appellant shall retain the right to present their case to the Board of Directors.

Decision

The decision of the Board of Directors shall be final and binding. In the event the Board of Directors determines that it cannot rule on the appeal, the decision of the Elections Committee is final.

13. TERM OF OFFICE

Commencement of the Term of the Officers

As per the Constitution.

14. HOLDING OF COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Final decisions as to the holding of meetings of the Elections Committee should rest with the Chief Returning Officer.
