- For ensuring that you have applied for the coverage you wish to have for yourself on your enrolment forms and your dependents within the appropriate time frames.
- To change your coverage from single to family within the appropriate time frame. If the coverage is not changed within 31 days of acquiring your first eligible dependent an Evidence of Insurability on Dependents is required for approval.

- To add a spouse to this plan in the event that they lose coverage under another plan within a 31 day period following the loss of coverage to avoid having to provide medical evidence.
- For examining payroll deductions for each pay period for all group insurance benefits. Examples would include family versus single coverage and optional benefit premiums particularly when you have requested changes in coverage and at the annual renewal date when the premiums are adjusted. This will ensure accuracy and allow for corrections on a timely basis. Coverage details can be confirmed through pay stubs, your plan administrator, Employers online benefit statements (where available), and the insurance carrier (their website and their toll free number)
- For amending your coverage to delete any coverage you no longer require. Contributions which you have paid are not refundable if they were consistent with the application on file.
- For effecting conversion of the coverage eligible to be converted upon the earlier of termination of employment or at age 65.
- For accurately completing the necessary forms required for continuing benefits while on maternity leave, sick leave, special leave without pay, retirement, etc. It is extremely important these arrangements be made prior to commencing eligible leave. For continuation of group life and health insurance while on temporary layoff or on unpaid leave you are responsible for the payment of the full premium amount (Employer/employee contributions) and failure to remit will result in termination of coverage. You are also responsible for the payment of the full premium amount (Employer/employee contributions) if you are a casual/hourly employee and you maintain benefits during a pay period when you have not worked and have not received pay. Failure to remit premiums will result in the termination of coverage.
- For providing appropriate claim information necessary to process LTD and/or Waiver of Premium claims as well as to ensure notice of claim/proof of claim where necessary has been provided within appropriate time frames as required under the contract.
- For providing appropriate medical information necessary to add a dependant as functionally impaired to continue their coverage beyond the age a dependant would otherwise terminate based on contract guidelines
- For completing the appropriate forms accurately, completely, and within applicable timeframes for such things as change of address, addition or deletion of a dependent, and other significant matters that can change or otherwise affect your coverage.
- To register overage student dependents between age 21 and 25 at the beginning of each school year. Failure to do so may impact coverage.

- Reviewing the online employee benefit booklet, contacting the insurance carrier and/or your organization's plan administrator to ensure you have a sound knowledge of the benefits available, extent of coverage, eligibility criteria, exclusions, restrictions, medical underwriting requirements, conversion options, continuation of benefits, predeterminations and other important requirements of the program.
- Providing proof of the purchase of pension service that may reduce LTD premiums. Premiums will only be adjusted when the plan administrator has been notified and received verification despite the date the purchase may have occurred.
- For notifying your plan administrator if the deletion of an overage dependant requires a change in your premiums from family to single coverage.

SCHEDULE D

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Employee Assistance Program is a joint program of the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador and its Unions/Associations. The purpose of the Program is to provide distressed employees with an opportunity for help when unsatisfactory job performance has been identified. Such deteriorated work performance may be the result of physical, mental or emotional illness, family or marital distress, legal or financial difficulties, or from problems related to alcohol or other drugs.

The objective of the Employee Assistance Program is to retain employees in their positions by offering assistance before their condition renders them unemployable.

Nothing in this statement or policy is to be interpreted as constituting a waiver of management's right to take disciplinary measures, nor the union's right to grieve within the framework of the Collective Agreement.

Basic Principles

The Unions/Associations and the Employer recognize that most human problems can be treated, especially when identified early, and when referral is made to an appropriate source of help.

For employees who participate in the Employee Assistance Program, sick leave may be granted for treatment and rehabilitation on the same basis as is granted for other health problems. Consideration could also be given for the use of annual leave or leave without pay.

Employees are assured that their job future and standing with the Employer will not be jeopardized by their participation in the Program.

The Employee Assistance Program encourages employees to seek help voluntarily for problems affecting their work performance. However, where unsatisfactory job performance persists, employees should normally be given a choice of accepting referral to the Employee Assistance Program or having to face more serious disciplinary measures for poor work performance.

The Program is based on the accepted theory that the work environment can be used effectively to motivate employees to obtain help for their personal problems.

An Employee Assistance Program Labour Management Committee is established to oversee the operation of this Program.

This Program applies to employees of departments and agencies included under Schedule A of the Public Service Commission Act, and is available to other Government corporations or agencies. The Program applies to all employees regardless of classification or level, including department or agency heads and their subordinates.

In the event that a group of employees are concerned that the help of the Employee Assistance Program should be offered to an immediate supervisor, established procedures should be followed to advise the next level of management of this concern.

PROGRAM RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Joint E.A.P. Committee

This Committee is comprised of an equal number of representatives appointed by the Employer and the Unions/Associations. A quorum shall consist of at least one representative from either side. The positions of Chairperson and Secretary shall alternate yearly between an Employer representative and a Union/Association representative.

The Joint E.A.P. Committee is responsible to senior officers of the Employer and the Unions/Associations for the following:

- a) to oversee and ensure the effective operation of the policy and procedures of the Program as agreed upon by the Employer and the Unions/Associations.
- b) to interpret Employee Assistance Program policy, procedures, and practises in order to ensure full understanding of the Program.
- c) to ensure that steps are taken to enable employees and their families to become aware that the Employee Assistance Program is available to all employees.
- d) to ensure that adequate training is provided for supervisors and union representatives.
- e) to assist in the identification, selection, and appointment of external helping agencies.
- f) to have completed an annual report and evaluation of the Employee Assistance Program.

2. The E.A.P. Co-ordinator

The Co-ordinator of the Employee Assistance Program will be an employee of the Public Service Commission. This person has an overall staff responsibility for the operation of the program.

The specific responsibilities of the Co-ordinator are:

- a) to thoroughly understand and consistently apply the principles of the Employee Assistance Program.

- b) to interview all employees who request assistance through the Employee Assistance Program, and to provide them with full information regarding participation in the program.
- c) to provide direct help in assisting employees, to advise employees of other helping services available, and to arrange for referral for assessment or treatment.
- d) to monitor the progress of employees referred to the Program, and to maintain contact with each employee in their recovery.
- e) to provide general statistics to the Joint Committee on: status of the program, i.e., number of employees, number of referrals, success in resolving performance problems, etc.
- f) to maintain all confidential information in a separate E.A.P. file, ensuring that such contents are handled according to the procedures outlined on pages 10 and 11 of this document.

3. Managers/Supervisors

Their responsibilities are;

- a) to establish and communicate to their employees the level of work performance that will be considered satisfactory in their respective division.
- b) to observe and document all instances of unsatisfactory job performance.
- c) to interview employees in private concerning poor work performance, not attempting to diagnose any personal problems of the employee, but using the opportunity to introduce the Employee Assistance Program.
- d) to initiate when necessary the referral procedures as outlined in this policy statement.
- e) to ensure follow-up action on Employee Assistance Program participants by providing support and encouragement to employees in their return to satisfactory performance, and by submitting regular performance reports to the E.A.P. Coordinator.

4. Director of Administration (or Departmental Officer Responsible for Personnel)

- a) to understand and to distribute up-to-date information about the Employee Assistance Program to all employees in their department or agency.
- b) to assist supervisory staff in monitoring job performance through relevant criteria, i.e., lateness, absenteeism, errors, accidents, etc.

- c) to ensure that adequate documentation exists to warrant a first corrective interview with an employee.
- d) to ensure that all managers/supervisors and other appropriate personnel are aware that the Employee Assistance Program must be applied with fairness and consistency in the various divisions of the department/agency.

5. Union Representative

The Union Representative will play a supportive role in the referral to the Employee Assistance Program of bargaining unit members who may have a personal problem affecting their job or standing with the Employer.

The responsibilities of the Union Representative are:

- a) to fully understand the statements of policy and referral procedures.
- b) to ensure that the employee's rights under the Collective Agreement and under the Employee Assistance Program are clearly explained.
- c) upon the request of a distressed employee, to become involved in any interview so that both the Union/Association and the Employer can encourage the employee to accept help through the Employee Assistance Program.
- d) to provide support to the employee during rehabilitation.

6. The Employee

The responsibilities of the individual employee who is a participant in the Employee Assistance Program are:

- a) to co-operate in the assessment and recovery process in order to bring their job performance up to a satisfactory level.
- b) to maintain a satisfactory level of work performance subsequent to reasonable rehabilitation efforts.

E.A.P. REFERRAL PROCEDURES

There exists many possible ways for an employee to use the Employee Assistance Program. Recognizing they have a problem, the employee can seek assistance on a voluntary basis by contacting the Co-ordinator of the Program. Such self-referrals guarantee complete confidentiality. However, when a self-initiated referral requires extended outside treatment, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the supervisor (or other personnel as required) to request leave or other arrangements.

FIRST CORRECTIVE INTERVIEW

When an employee's work performance becomes unsatisfactory, the supervisor's first response should be to provide the employee with feedback on performance and to clarify what is expected of them. Unsatisfactory job performance may include such things as tardiness, absenteeism, disruptive behaviour, productivity below satisfactory levels of quality and quantity, etc. Where unsatisfactory performance is identified, a check must be made to ascertain if it results from causes such as a lack of knowledge or skill, a misunderstanding, system or equipment problems, or other factors at the workplace.

Should this check reveal that the poor work performance is not caused by such job related factors, then a corrective interview is warranted. At this interview, the pertinent facts related to the employee's performance record should be examined carefully, and should remain the basis for the interview. The quality, the quantity, and/or the manner of performance should be described to the employee in specific terms. This interview should be conducted under circumstances conducive to an objective discussion, ensuring privacy and avoiding interruptions. The interview serves to establish that the supervisor is aware of the deteriorating job performance, that work improvement is necessary, and that the employee is expected to resolve any problems causing poor work performance.

When it appears that the performance problems may result from factors external to the job, information should be given concerning available help through the Employee Assistance Program.

This first corrective interview shall be conducted by the supervisor, and if requested by the employee, the Union Representative shall be present. The interview will conclude with the scheduling of a second interview to be held in two months to review the progress of the employee, unless a serious incident occurs requiring earlier action. The employee is assured that their work performance will continue to be monitored.

At this stage, participation in the Employee Assistance Program is the employee's choice on a voluntary basis.

SECOND INTERVIEW

It is essential that this follow-up be held with the employee. If the employee's work performance has improved to a satisfactory level, this interview serves to acknowledge the improvement and to encourage the employee to continue the good work.

If the unsatisfactory job performance persists, the supervisor shall consult with the Director of Administration or their designate to review the employee's performance before making a formal referral to the Employee Assistance Program. If the Union Representative was involved initially, that person shall also be consulted. In conducting this second interview with the employee, it is explained that:

- a) the consequences of continuing the present unsatisfactory work pattern may lead to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.
- b) the Employee Assistance Program is in place and how it operates.
- c) the employee is given a choice between accepting referral to the Employee Assistance Program or not. If the employee accepts help through the Employee Assistance Program, disciplinary action for poor work performance should normally be deferred. However, circumstances may be so serious that disciplinary action may need to be imposed at any time.
- d) the employee is expected to keep the appointment, to co-operate with the Program, and to participate in the prescribed recovery plan.
- e) if the employee chooses not to accept referral to the Employee Assistance Program, a statement that help was offered through the Employee Assistance Program will be placed in the employee's personal file.
- f) all documentation concerning the formal referral to the Employee Assistance Program will be kept in a sealed envelope and marked "To be opened only by the Department Head or designate, and the employee".

CONFIDENTIALITY

It is of utmost importance that confidentiality be maintained throughout every level of the Employee Assistance Program.

Employee Assistance Program files shall be handled with the greatest degree of confidentiality. Names shall not be used on these files nor on the working notes contained in them. Some other means of identification such as codes/numbers/letters will be used.

Employee Assistance Program files and working notes shall be destroyed after the last contact with the E.A.P. service or upon the employee's separation from the Employer.

Persons performing a function within the Employee Assistance Program, (e.g., medical people, administrators, co-ordinators, counsellors, and support staff) are prohibited from disclosing any kind of information unless the written consent of the individual employee is obtained.

In the case of a formal referral, a form letter is outlined in Appendix 1 will be sent to the supervisor to verify the employee's participation in the Program. When an employee is referred by the E.A.P. Co-ordinator to an appointed external helping agency, a minimal amount of information should be given but sufficient to enable that agency to properly assist the employee.

The confidential file of the Employee Assistance Program shall be available for inspection by the employee at any reasonable time.

No other organization, agency, or person either inside or outside the Public Service will have access, in any way, to files of the Employee Assistance Program for purposes such as long-term studies, research, statistics, etc. Research using the E.A.P. data in the form of codes or symbols is also prohibited by this provision.

FOLLOW-UP

It must be recognized that a serious personal problem needs time to be resolved and that support and encouragement on the job serve to help the recovery process. Therefore, any corrective plan of action must be followed through with the employee.

Following completion of the prescribed period of recovery as outlined by the appointed helping agency and/or the E.A.P. Co-ordinator, an interview must be arranged whereby the Director of Administration and the supervisor meet with the employee to review the latter's work performance during that time. If initially consulted, the Union Representative shall also be consulted at this time.

The success of an employee's participation in the Employee Assistance Program will be measured only in terms of job performance. Once the work performance of the employee has reached the established satisfactory level, the individual is encouraged to maintain that level of satisfactory performance and is formed that their participation in the Employee Assistance Program is now completed. If the employee's performance has not reached the established satisfactory level, disciplinary action may follow.

CONCLUSION

It is clear that the key to the success of an Employee Assistance Program rests with a firm commitment on the part of the Employer and the Unions/Associations in providing distressed employees with a genuine offer of help. This commitment can be realized only through the actions of the Employer's managers at all levels, and the Unions/Associations representatives for the workplace. Likewise, the distressed employee's willingness to participate in the Program is essential.

Employee Assistance Programs are now widely accepted as beneficial to the employee and the Employer. The distressed worker is offered and encouraged to accept help for problems that seriously affect their work, well-being, and family. The Employer benefits by retaining its employees in the work force so that their skills and knowledge are not lost.

Finally, the early use of Employee Assistance Program policies and procedures can contribute significantly to the prevention of serious behavioural health problems among employees.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Contained herein are a number of options available to the parties under the Alternate Dispute Resolution process designed to expeditiously settle outstanding disputes which have gone through the grievance process and have been referred to arbitration.

OPTION A - MEDIATION ARBITRATION

In selecting this option, it is the intent of the parties to the dispute, and the mediator to conduct the mediation process in a bona fide and forthright manner and to make a serious attempt to resolve the dispute.

The following is a list of the Terms and Conditions under which the mediation/arbitration shall be conducted.

1. Authority to Settle

It is agreed that in order to have an effective mediation, the parties or their representatives should have full authority to settle the dispute at the mediation conference.

2. Process

It is agreed that in order to resolve the outstanding issues between the parties to the dispute, there will be an effort to isolate points of agreement and disagreement, to explore alternative solutions and to consider compromises or accommodations.

3. Mediator's Role

The Mediator's role is to assist the parties to negotiate a voluntary settlement of the controversy and issues as described above. The Mediator is a neutral and impartial person with no interest in the controversy. In the event that the parties are unable to reach an agreement on the subject matter of the dispute, the parties agree that the Mediator is empowered to make decisions for the parties as to how the matter should or must be resolved. The parties hereby agree that they will abide by the decisions voluntarily reached in the matter or will be bound by the decision of the Mediator in the event that the rendering of such a decision occurs. The parties further agree that, in the event that a decision is rendered by the Mediator, such decision shall not be subject to judicial or arbitral review and each party hereby undertakes to take no further proceedings in such a circumstance.

4. Pre-Mediation Information

To facilitate an understanding of the controversy and the issues to be mediated, the parties will provide to the Mediator such written and oral information as may be requested prior to the mediation session(s) and, at the minimum, will provide a brief written summary of the controversy as they see it, not less than ten (10) days prior to the first mediation session. Again, this is optional but, as explained above, would be helpful. The time lines can be decided between you.

5. Preparation to Settle

The parties will come to the mediation fully prepared to settle the controversy, with all necessary information and advice.

6. Confidential Disclosures

It is agreed that the Mediator may disclose to any party or to their representative any information provided by the other party which the Mediator believes to be relevant to the issues being mediated, unless a party has specifically requested the Mediator to keep certain information confidential.

7. Effecting a Settlement

It is agreed that where a settlement is reached in the dispute, the parties will carry out the terms of the settlement as soon as possible.

8. Termination

It is agreed that the mediation conference may be terminated at any time by any party, their representative or the Mediator for any reason.

9. Inadmissibility

It is agreed that mediation sessions are settlement negotiations and are inadmissible in any further litigation or arbitration to the extent allowed by law. The parties will not subpoena or otherwise require the Mediator to testify or produce records or notes in any future proceedings. No transcripts will be kept of the mediation conference.

10. Subsequent Proceedings

It is agreed that the parties shall not rely on or introduce as evidence in subsequent arbitral or judicial proceedings:

- (a) any view expressed, or suggestions made, by the other party in respect of the possible settlement of the dispute;

- (b) any admissions made by the other party in the course of the mediation;
- (c) the fact that the other party had indicated a willingness to accept a proposal or recommendation for settlement made by the Mediator.

11. Mediation Sessions

The parties will attend one or more mediation sessions at a time and place scheduled by the Mediator.

12. Outstanding Legal Proceedings

No party will initiate or take any fresh steps in any legal proceedings related to the controversy while the mediation is in progress.

OPTION B - EXPEDITED ARBITRATION

Subject to mutual agreement between the parties, it is agreed that the following process shall be followed in an expedited arbitration process:

- (a) In any dispute over application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement, the parties agree to submit a written brief and/or present oral argument to the sole Arbitrator.
- (b) The parties agree to draft a list of three (3) mutually acceptable Arbitrators who will be selected on a rotating basis to deal with each sitting. Future selections of Arbitrators will be considered on a year to year basis.
- (c) The parties will present argument/rebuttal based on:
 - issue(s);
 - applicable provisions of the Collective Agreement;
 - general principle of arbitration case law which is applicable, including judicial decisions;
 - relevant arbitration awards, judicial decisions, legislation, texts if applicable, and how they apply;
 - remedies requested.

Argument/rebuttal will be limited to one (1) hour for each party.

- (d) The party bearing the onus of proof will proceed first and rebut, if necessary.
- (e) The parties will not call witnesses or submit evidence, however, they can mutually agree to enter consent items;
- (f) Decisions may be issued without having to provide the basis of conclusions.

- (g) All decisions will be without prejudice to any other case(s) with no precedent value being applied to any other case unless the parties mutually agree in writing to allow a decision to have precedent value.
- (h) The parties agree that decisions arising out of these arbitrations will not be considered for judicial review unless the parties have mutually agreed in writing to allow a decision to have precedent value in which case either party can consider a decision for judicial review.
- (i) Where the parties mutually agree, any step of the process may be altered, if deemed necessary.

OPTION C - MODIFIED ARBITRATION

It is understood that certain issues may have to be referred to the full arbitration process. In the interest of dealing with these cases in the most expeditious manner, wherever possible, modified processes may be used. These may include:

Arbitration by Grouping (Multiple Grievances)

Arbitration by Issue (Multiple Grievances)

The parties may also agree to a pre-determined list of Arbitrators that would be used on a rotational basis.

OPTION D - MEDIATION

Where the grievance procedure has failed to settle the grievance, the parties may elect to have the matter referred to grievance mediation process of the Labour Relations Agency prior to electing to proceed to arbitration. If the mediation process fails to resolve the issue, either party may then refer the matter to arbitration in accordance with Article 13.

Where a grievance is submitted to mediation, such submission shall not in any way affect the time limits or any other provision of the Arbitration Procedure.

OPTION E - OTHER

The parties may also utilize modified forms of the above processes or any other ADR process that is mutually acceptable.

It is agreed that the new plan began implementation on April 1, 2008. However, any wage adjustments necessary for implementation of this plan will not accrue on April 1, 2008. The total cost and the timing of any wage adjustments are to be included in negotiations to commence on Government's finalization of the new classification system.

The Unions require that a Job Evaluation Consultant (as selected by the Unions) would have direct contact with the Plan's consultant and have full access to all relevant information. This individual would also communicate with and have access to all meetings of the Steering Committee. The salary and the expenses of the Advisor would be borne by the Unions.

The ratings of the positions will be conducted by the staff of the Classification and Compensation, Division of the Treasury Board Secretariat. There will be a Benchmark Committee composed of two-thirds management and one-third union representatives who will review the sampling of the ratings as they are done. The Benchmark Committee would have the authority to refer results back to the raters should they be deemed inconsistent. The final decision making authority rests with Treasury Board.

While the new Job Evaluation system is being implemented, all employees can proceed with individual reviews and appeals under the current plan. However, there will be no further occupational reviews.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING - 2001HEALTH INSURANCE

There was agreement on extending benefits of the current group health and insurance plan to temporary employees effective April 1, 2002. The eligibility criteria to be amended as follows:

It is understood and agreed that effective April 1, 2002, eligibility under the group insurance programs, policies 7600 and 3412, is hereby amended to include the following class of employees, subject to the following:

- Employees who have worked 50% or greater of the normal working hours in the previous calendar year will qualify for group insurance benefits as a condition of employment effective April 1, 2002.
- Annual review on January 1st of each year will determine eligibility, continued enrollment or termination of coverage under these programs. Should an employee terminate employment all coverages under the programs terminates the date of termination.
- For the purpose of determining group life insurance coverage, the amount will be based upon twice their annual salary, subject to a minimum amount of $10,000.
- Employees determined to be eligible by the Employer for coverage under these group programs, based on the number of hours worked in the previous year, will not be required to produce evidence of insurability as enrollment is mandatory and a condition of employment.

This wording reflects amendments to the eligibility guidelines only as complete terms and policy conditions are set out in actual contracts on file with Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, the policyholder.

As a result of the 2004 round of negotiations, the following was also agreed:

1. Employees determined to be eligible for coverage under the Atlantic Blue Cross Care Plan shall be continued for the full twelve (12) month period commencing April 1st of each year as long as they remain actively employed and pay the required premiums.

3. Premiums for these employees must be collected through payroll deductions.

4. Employees who accessed Maternity, Adoption and/or Parental Leave during the previous calendar year will be allowed to count, for eligibility purposes, the hours worked during such leave by the next senior employee in that period.
5. Premiums for employees who are off payroll for one (1) or more periods will be recovered from the next cheque unless extenuating circumstances exist. This procedure for the recovery of premiums applies only to health care groups. Existing arrangements for the recovery of premiums in other sectors shall continue for the life of that Agreement.
6. Employees who miss a payroll for reasons other than approved unpaid sick leave are required to pay 100% of the premiums.
7. Employees on unpaid sick leave are required to present supporting medical documentation to the Employer during the current pay period.
8. If necessary, a further review of the premium recovery process will occur within six (6) months of the signing of the relevant Collective Agreements.

This wording reflects amendments to the eligibility guidelines only as complete terms and policy conditions are set out in actual contracts on file with Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, the policyholder.

9. Group Insurance Committee Membership

L #1 Employee Transportation

The Employer and the Union both recognize that it is not the policy of Government to provide transportation free-of-charge to employees travelling on any of the intra-Provincial ferry services.

However, in consideration of employees working in each service, the Employer agrees that Marine Service employees, their spouses and dependent children may be allowed free transportation on their respective service provided no paying passengers are displaced.

The Employer reserves the right to cancel this privilege or take disciplinary action on any employee who violates these provisions or otherwise abuses the privilege.

L #2 Fogo / Farewell / Change Islands Service

In the event that employees are required to operate a combined service i.e. Fogo/Farewell to Change Islands, they shall be paid at overtime rates for the extra one and one half (1 1/2) hours necessary to complete the run as is the current practise.

L #3 Vessel Accommodations

L #5 Christmas Day

Provided there is no additional cost to the Employer, employees will be permitted to exchange shifts as necessary in order to allow each employee every second Christmas off.

L #6 Yearly Leave Summary

The Employer agrees to include information regarding accumulated leave in lieu of overtime on the Yearly Leave Summary.

L #7 Vacation Relief and Meal Allowance

As a result of the recent negotiations with the Marine Service Workers, it is agreed that:

1. Vacation relief and Leave in Lieu of Overtime (LLO) will be offered to off-shift employees on the payroll in the headquarters area before any temporary employees are hired on the condition that such relief work will be paid at regular rates for each hour worked.
- *2 The Employer will allocate twenty-five dollars ($25) per day for each crew member working on a shift per vessel for the purchase of food by the Marine Cook.

Marine Services shore based personnel will receive the equivalent amount on their regular cheque on a per annum basis.

L #8 Hours of Work

Notwithstanding the bonus provision for the hours of work and the requirement for employees to be available for call back as contained in Article 12, Clause 12.03, the parties to this Agreement agree that due to the abnormal nature of the hours of work of Marine Services employees, the following principles of remuneration are agreed to for payroll purposes:

1. Employees shall be paid at straight time rates for all hours worked in accordance with the established daily sailing schedule. The straight time rate is calculated, as per Clause 12.04, by dividing the employee's annual salary, per Schedule A, by 2080 hours.
2. Employees will be paid on the basis of a twelve (12) hour day. Following from this:
 - a 14 day shift is 168 hours
 - a 7 day shift is 84 hours
 - annual hours are 2,184 hours
3. Where the actual hours worked in accordance with the established daily sailing schedule are above 2,184 on an annual basis, the employee will be compensated for such hours on a lump sum on the last pay period of the fiscal year.

Example:

The sailing schedule for the Green Bay service calls for an employee to work 2,314 hours per year. An employee who works the full year would be paid on a bi-weekly basis for 12 hours per day - 168 hours per shift for a total of 2,184 hours. However, on the last pay period of each fiscal year he would be entitled to compensation for the extra 130 hours (2,314 - 2,184) at straight time rates.

4. The above notwithstanding, temporary employees will be compensated weekly/bi-weekly on the basis of the hours worked in accordance with the established schedule for their respective service.
5. The Bell Island scheduled 10:30 p.m. trip will not be affected by this Clause, but will be reimbursed as per past practice.

In addition, former employees of the Newfoundland Transportation Company shall have Asuper-seniority@ in terms of maintaining their positions on the Bell Island - Portugal Cove Ferry Service.

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Remote Work/Telework

The parties recognize the benefits of access to E-Work arrangements for Employees and Employers. The parties also recognize the value in conducting a review of the current policies and practices regarding e-work arrangements within the Government, Agencies, Boards and Commissions and Regional Health Authorities.

Within six (6) months of signing the Collective Agreement, the Employer will complete a review of the current E-work arrangements policy to determine necessary updates. The Employer will consult with the Union regarding the details of the review and provide opportunity for feedback via that consultation. The review will include but not be limited to: eligibility and operational requirements, defined hours of work, work performance requirements and evaluation, remote supervision and employee health and safety, equipment, termination of agreement and any other terms as agreed by the parties.

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Statutory Holiday Replacement

Each year, an employee shall be entitled to designate replacement statutory holiday(s) that are days of cultural or religious significance to the employee in place of any or all of the statutory holidays outlined in the collective agreement. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests and such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

For the purposes of this letter, cultural or religious significance shall be defined as: A day in which a religious observation is held or a day that celebrates the culture of a particular nation, people, or other social group.

The Employee shall inform the Employer of their choice(s), in writing, prior to November 15 in the calendar year before the new designations take effect. Such notice shall state clearly which statutory holiday(s) the employee is replacing and which day(s) of cultural or religious significance, including the dates on which they occur, that they are designating in the stead of the replaced statutory holiday(s).

Where the specific date(s) of cultural or religious significance are not yet confirmed on or before November 15th in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, the Employee will notify the Employer of the day(s) of significance and will provide date(s) as soon as they become available. The Employer will endeavor to accommodate such requests received after November 15th in the calendar year before the new designations take effect, subject to operational requirements and availability of replacement staff. Requests will not be unreasonably be denied.

Such statutory holiday replacement, once designated, will not be amendable for the applicable calendar year. The Employer will grant the newly designated holiday(s) as paid day(s) off. Once designated per the above process, the newly named holiday(s) shall be the day(s) to which all rights which are normally associated with the specific statutory holiday being replaced are now applied:

- (a) The newly designated holiday days will attract all benefits of the collective agreement as if that day were the actual statutory holiday that they are designated to replace.

- (b) The replaced statutory holiday(s) will become a regular day, whether it be a workday or a day of rest, and will not attract any additional benefit previously attributable to it as a statutory holiday: all such benefits will have transferred to the designated replacement day(s).
- (c) Where the Employer does not provide service on a day described under b) above, and where the employee is scheduled to work on that day of the week, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to provide meaningful work to the employee on that day.
- (d) Where the Employer is unable to provide meaningful work on that day, the employee may access vacation, banked overtime, or other like paid banks to cover the missed day of work.

Sincerely,

Fiona Ellis
Director of Collective Bargaining

Dear Mr. King:

Re: Public Health Emergency

The Employer recognizes that public health emergencies may have an impact on overall government operations and service delivery, individual employees, and the residents of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Employer further recognizes that not all public health emergencies will require the same emergency response requirements and/or public health directives and will require an evaluation of such response based on the nature of the emergency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, general principles will apply to impacted employees in the event of a public health emergency.

1) Self-Isolation

Employees directed by their Employer or Public Health – Department of Health and Community Services to self-isolate, and who are asymptomatic of a public health illness may (where applicable - this may be dependent on vaccination or other considerations deemed appropriate by the Employer) be placed on special leave with pay for the hours in which they are unable to report to work up to a maximum of seventy- five (75) hours per year. Employees who work less than full time hours will receive the benefit on a pro-rata basis. Temporary call-in employees who are not prescheduled, will be permitted to take special leave with pay on shifts they would have received in normal circumstances (compared to next junior temporary call-in).

Employees will not be required to provide medical documentation for this period of hours, unless there is sufficient reason on the part of the Employer to request such documentation. All other absences require employees to utilize their leave entitlements until they return to work.

2) Remote Work

Employees may be required to work remotely where the capability exists and it is operationally feasible. Special leave with pay shall only be utilized in instances where remote work is not an option.

3) Use of Sick Leave

Employees who exhibit symptoms of a public health illness and who cannot work remotely, are required to use their sick leave entitlement until they return to work. Functional Abilities Information related to accommodation requests, extensions, illness unrelated to the current public health emergency, use of long-term sick leave and attendance support planning may still be required.

4) Re-Deployment

The Parties recognize that the Employer may be required to redeploy human resources to ensure adequate and safe staffing levels, and such re-deployment shall be done in consultation with the Union.

The parties further agree to enter into agreements as necessary to address other issues arising from a public health emergency that may not be covered by this letter.

Sincerely,

Fiona Ellis
