

Sample
General/Contract & Constitution Resolution.

If it's a general/contract resolution, you would put what's current in a Whereas, and then what you want in the Therefore, be it resolved.

Sample:

WHEREAS Article 14:01 states ---

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED Article 14:01 be changed to read ---

OR

WHEREAS currently parents have to pay exorbitant amount for child care in this province;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED NAPE lobby Government to provide fully funded child care.

If, it is a Constitution Resolution, then you have to be specific on the new language. You need to word the article exactly as you want it to read.

Sample:

WHEREAS Article I – Officers – 4. (a) does not include a position of Western Vice President;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED Article I – Officers – 4. (a) be changed to read: The Provincial Executive of NAPE will include four (4) Vice Presidents; Eastern Vice President, Central Vice President, Western Vice President and General Vice President.